Case Study: Scania | matters+

2020-10-12 - James Mact - Comments (0) - Blog

One of the many benefits of adopting matters+ within your in-house legal team is that it offers rich data analytics as you work through the varied matters that pass through your department every day. As a result, you are able to maximise efficiency and performance.

In the following case study, Scania's Head of Legal, Sarah Holford, discusses how matters+ has helped her to spot trends and predict legal workloads to always be one step ahead:

Attachments

- Scania-Matters-Plus-Case-Study.pdf [1.04 MB]